Subject

Appeal petition No 2949 dated the 9th May 1893, from one Bettamma, Pujaree of Veerangere Anjaneyaswamy temple, Mysore against the order dated 20th December 1892: passed by the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, in Miscellaneous Revenue Appeal No 33 of 1892-3.

The following are the facts of the case: —

1. On the 8th July 1841, one Venkatakrishniah, minor son of Chika Venkatiah, Archak of Veerangere Anjaneyaswamy temple in Mysore, through his mother and guardian Narsamma, presented a petition to the Amildar stating that his father Chika Venkatiah and one Bettamma (present Appellant) were both Archaks of Veerangere Anjaneyaswamy temple each performing the duties thereof by monthly turns, that the said Chika Venkatiah died in the month of Vaisakha of the year Vikruti (1890-91)

The Dy Commr's decision is not correct. Eachan Venkata Krishnayya has a right to make Puja as he has a share of the hire. he has no right, he cannot have 2½ Rs - if he has Govt. chosen not to recognise an arrangement which takes away the remuneration from the performer of the service. Right to make Puja appears to me to be a civil right, not barred from the cognisance when it was his turn to perform the Pooja in the temple, that at the time of his father's death, he (Venkatakrishniah) being a minor and under pollution, it was arranged with the aid of Panchayetdars that Bettamma (Appellant) should herself have the Pooja falling to his turn duly performed and pay him for his share, a sum of Rs 2/8 per month this engagement ceasing whenever he (Venkata-Krishniah) desired it, that a written Karar to the above effect had been drawn up at the time and that Bettamma (Appellant) having fraudulently obtained possession of the Karar refused to give up to him his turn of Pooja service, even though frequently asked to do so. Venkata Krishniah therefore prayed that orders might be issued allowing him to perform himself the Pooja services of his turn.

2. In the enquiry that followed before the Amildar Bettamma (Appeal petitioner) admitted* that both herself and of Courts by Sec 221 of the L R Code. I do not know what view the Chief Court have finally taken on the point — I shall be glad to know the opinion of the Members thereof before giving my own — If it is a Civil question I would refer the parties to Civil Courts, & let Bettamma pay the whole allowance till the other party's right is established Venkatakrishniah were Archaks of the temple, each doing duty by monthly turns, but stated that according to the agreement entered into with Narsammah (widow of Chika Venkatiah and mother of Venkatakrishniah) at the time of the said Venkatiah's death, she (Bettamma) was to have the whole Pooja of the temple for a period of 5 years on condition of her paying a monthly sum of Rs 2/8 to Venkatakrishniah, that the agreement was only an oral one not reduced to writing, that only a year had elapsed since the contract was entered into and four more years had to run and that she would therefore give up to Venkatakrishnia his Pooja turn only after the expiry of the Contract period of five years.

3. A few witnesses were examined on either side, those for Venkatakrishniah deposing, that the contract between Venkatakrishniah and Bettamma was a written one and was intended to cease whenever the former desired it, while those for Bettamma stated that the contract in question was only an oral one and was to extend for a period of five years.

4. Thereupon the Amildar submitted the papers for the orders of the District Muzrai officer In his report,* the Amildar stated that the temple in question was one under Government management, and had a Jaedik of Rs 4-5-6 per month for Padilara expenses proper, the Archak however, receiving no regular pay, and solicited orders on the main point at issue – viz, whether Bellamma should be allowed to have the whole Pooja of the temple till the expiry of the contract period of five years as alleged by her or should be ordered to give up at once to Venkata Krishniah his turn of Pooja.

5. In reply to the above, the District Muzrai officer, observed* among other things that the temple in question, being under Muzrai management, the appointment of Archaks permanent or acting should have the previous sanction of Government, and called for information on the following points: ———

* No 38 dated 23rd July 1891

* No 57 dated 18th August 1891

(i) Who was the Barawarddar for the Archakship in question.

(ii) When was the Barawarddar first entertained.

(iii) Who was the petitioner Narasammah that now claims a turn in the Pooja service.

(iv) What relationship did the petitioner's husband bear to the Barawarddar.

(v) By whose permission was he performing Pooja in the Temple.

6. At this stage of the enquiry, Bellamma presented a petition* to the District Murrau officer in which she enclosed a statement of her claims which she said had been submitted to the Amildar but was rejected by that officer. In this Statement Bellamma in direct opposition to her previous depositions made before the Amildar on the 13th July 1891, stated that she was the sole Barawarddar to the Archakship of the Veerangere Anjaneyaswamy temple, that she being a woman had nominated her son-in-law

* September 1891.

on Puttusamiah to perform the Pooja services that the deceased Chicka Venkatiah (father of Venkata Krishniah referred to above) had only during his life time occasionally acted in the office like some other Gumastas appointed by her whenever the said Puttusamiah was unable to attend to the Pooja work himself, and on those occasions drawn the Jaadik allowances direct from the Taluk Kutchery and that apart from this the said deceased Chicka Venkatiah had by himself possessed no manner of right for the Archakship in question. She (Bettamma) therefore requested that the Archakship held by her might be registered in the name of her adopted son Venkatasheshiah (a minor) and the Pooja services allowed to be performed by her son-in-law Puttusamiah during the minority of the said Venkata-Seshia.

7. The above petition of Bettamma together with the enclosed statement was

No 81 dated 18th Sepr 1891. forwarded* by the District Murrai officer to the Amildar for report in Continuation of the former's Nº 57 dated 1st August 1891.

8. Meanwhile Venkata Krishniah also presented another Dated 28th August 1891. petition* to the Amildar setting forth how he was a Hukdar too, for the Archakship in question.

9. Thereupon the Amildar

Nº 72 dated 5th Novr 1891. submitted another report* to the District Murrai officer, in which he stated that the records shewed that the Jasdik of Rs 4·5 6 endowed to the temple was being paid to Bettamma and Chika Venkatia during their respective turns, that it was evident from the depositions given, that both these persons were Hukdars for the Archakship, each having a right to do duty for six months in the year, that there was no dispute as to the above point, that Navisamma and Venkata Krishniah were descendants of the original holder of the office in the female line and Bettamma in the male line, that when Chika Venkatiah died there being no qualified persons to perform the service Bettamma was asked to arrange for the same, that under the above circumstances there appeared no reason why the Pooja should be allowed to remain in the hands of Bettamma for five years and that it was desirable to admit both Bettamma and Venkatakrishniah as Archaks of the temple and allow them to perform the Pooja according to their respective turns.

10. On receipt of the above the District Muzrai officer called for further information on the following points :—

i In whose name did the Baraward stand prior to the entertainment of Bettamma.

ii Was Chika Venkatia then a shareholder.

No 100 dated 9th Novr '91.

11. On receipt of further report, from the Amildar the district Muzrai officer passed the following order :*

In the Baraward Register of 1876, which has been submitted, the names of Bettammah and her step-son Venkata Sanjeeviah (Since deceased) are entered; there is nothing to shew that the deceased

* No 27 dated 12th May 1892

Venkatiah, husband of the petitioner Narasammah was ever registered in the Baraward. The petitioner Narasammah has failed to produce any record or document in support of her deceased husband's right to perform Pooja in the temple; the Barwardar Bettammah urges in her statement that she, Bettammah, being a woman had appointed Venkatiah to perform the Pooja for some time and that he had accordingly been paying certain amount to her privately on that account.

"Under these circumstances it is not possible to regard the husband of the petitioner (Narsammah) as a Hakdar for the temple Archakship, and to register his heir's name jointly with that of Bettammah for the Archakship of the temple.

"If the petitioner (Narasammah) produces satisfactory evidence to prove her husband's "Hak" for the Archakship, then orders will be passed. Till then, the nominee of Bettammah should be allowed to perform the Pooja and he should be paid the Jaradik amount. Bettammah should also be informed that in case she desires to appoint any one on her behalf other than the present man, she should obtain the orders of Government on the subject."

12. Against the above order Venkatakrishniah through his mother and guardian Naradammah appealed* to the Deputy Commissioner, who after hearing the parties passed the following order*:

"The Appellant and her witnesses refer to a plain paper Karar which has not been produced. Their statements as to its contents cannot therefore be received. The Appellant says that the Respondent fraudulently took it away from her. There is no evidence for it. however, and even if true it cannot avail her. On the other hand, the Respondents' witnesses say that the agreement

* Dated 26th October 1892

* Dated 28th December 1892 was intended to run for five years and that there was no written Karar. It is curious that each party has cited a set of witnesses who do not refer to the others.

"Under all the circumstances of the case, I can only find that the petitioner (Appellant) has failed to prove her case and that as alleged by Respondent the latter should have the Pooja for five years, paying Rs 2/8 per mensem to Appellant. The appeal is rejected."

Bellammah now appeals to this office against the above order of the Deputy Commissioner, on the following grounds:—

1. Though the Respondent failed to prove her case in the Lower Courts, still the Lower Appellate Court has erroneously directed that the Appellant should pay the Respondent a sum of Rs 2/8 per month. The Taluk authorities are wrong in deducting, every month, the sum of Rs 2/8 from the Jasdik amount

As the Temple is under Govt management, we will leave to pass some order, whether it is only a summary order, or it is an order having the force of a Decree. — Post the case for hearing

Memo

One Venkatakrishniah (a Minor) presented a petition to the Amildar stating that his father Chick Venkatiah and Bettamma (appellant) were both Archaks of the Anjaneyaswamy temple at Veeranagere, performing Poojah by monthly turns, that his father died in Vaisaka of Vikruti (1890-91) and that he then came to an Agreement with Bettamma, the Conditions being that Bettamma should perform Poojah during Venkatakrishniah's term paying him Rs 2-8 a month and that the Agreement might be Cancelled whenever Venkata Krishniah chose to do so. He alleged in the petition that he was anxious to perform Poojah, that he asked Bettamma to allow him to do it, but in vain and prayed that he might be allowed to perform Poojah during his turns. Bettamma made a Statement first that Chick Venkatiah

Chick Venkatachi and the had sold the right of performing Poojah, that on his death the Plaintiff to an Agreement with his son C Venkatakrishniah, whereby it was arranged that the should perform Poojah uninterruptedly for a period of 5 years, paying him for the Months in which he had the right of performing Poojah at Rs 2- a Month. She subsequently made another Statement that Chick Venkatiah had no right to perform Poojah and that she did not come to any Agreement with Chick Venkatiah

The present petition is based entirely upon an alleged Contract between the parties. It is not even asserted that the Muzavaji officers had any hand in the making of Arrangements for the performance of Poojah in the Anjaneyaswami Temple.

The matter in dispute seems to be within the Cognizance of Civil Courts and there are a few decisions of the Calcutta Courts

Court supporting this view

The first Case is Murudia vs Buvaliya & others, reported at page 168 of the Volume of the Bombay Law Reports. This was decided long before the passing of the Land Revenue Code and the point decided was that a Suit to establish the right to the office of Poojari is Cognizable by Civil Courts. The question did not arise for decision whether a Suit Can be sustained when it is to establish a right to the office of Poojari of a temple under the Management of the Muzorazi Dept.

Sanjeevrab & another vs Sanjeevrab and others (Appeal Suit 79/1890) which has not been reported is the next Case decided by the Chief Court. This was a Suit for a declaration of Plaintiffs right to perform Poojah in a temple for 3 months in Each year and for recovery of Dinapo for not having been allowed to

to perform Poojah by the Defendants.
The Chief Court decided that as Defts performed Poojah under the Orders of Govt as their paid Servants, No Suit lay against them and that Plaintiffs Remedy Consisted in suing the Govt. That Civil Courts have no Jurisdiction to entertain Suits to establish a right to the office of Poojaris of a Muzarai Temple has not been decided in this Case. Sanjeevia vs. Sanjeevia is distinguishable from the present Case. In the former Poojaris were appointed by Govt, while in the latter the Govt had nothing to do with the appointment of a Poojari

The third Case is Chenna Jeera vs Thimma 14 Mysore Law Reports 140.
This is a Full Bench Case and the point decided was that Sec 221 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code is no bar to the institution in a Civil Court of a Suit to establish the right to perform Poojah

Poojah of a temple, not under the Management of the Muzrayi Dept

There is another Case on the point, but it is not reported. It is Referred Case 4 of 93-94 (Parashurama Swamy and Another vs Chandra Sekarappa & others). In answering the reference, the Chief Judge and A. Ramachandra Iyer Esq. held that Sec 22 of the Land Revenue Code does not prohibit a Civil Court from taking Cognizance of a suit instituted to establish a right to perform the duties of Poojari of a temple, under the Management of the Muzarayi Dept. P. N. Krishna Murthy Esq did not express his opinion on the point in the Case. He said the reference was unauthorised. The reference of the Munsiff with the opinion of the Civil Court in Ref. Case 4 of 93-94 and the Judgment in O.S. 79/90 are herewith submitted

Respondents (Defendants)

Appeal against the Decree of the Munsiff of Bangalore in O.S. No 841 of 1888

This appeal coming on for hearing on Friday the 28th day of February 1890,

the

the Court delivered the following:—

Judgment

T. R. A. Thumboo Chetty Esqre, Judge:- Plaintiffs sued for a declaration of their right to make "puja" in Anjenya temple at Devarkoodahalli Bangalore Taluq, for 3 months in each year and to recover from Defendants Rs 20 as damages, on the ground that Defendants refused to allow Plaintiffs to make the pooja in April 1888, when it was their turn to do so.

2. The Munsiff dismissed the suit. He held that the temple was a Sircar temple under the management of the Muzrai Officers of Government, who, from time to time, appointed the Pujaries and directed by whom and in what order and for what length of time puja should be performed, and that, under the orders of the Deputy Commissioner issued in 1888, one Venkatappah & 1st Defendant have been doing during 6 months in year year. The Munsiff was of opinion that Civil Courts could not interfere with the arrangements made by Government in its Muzrai Department & that the emoluments were payable to the actual officiators and could not therefore be claimed by Plaintiffs.

3. Plaintiffs, in this appeal, chiefly contended, that the temple was not a Government temple and that the Deputy Commissioner acted ultra vires in excluding Plaintiffs from the worship.

4. It was admitted by Plaintiffs' 2nd witness that this was a Sivaar temple. It admittedly enjoys a Sivaar Saddak. It is kept in repair by Government, and the evidence of Defendants' witnesses and the exhibits filed by both parties clearly prove, that the temple belongs to the Sivaas that it is under the management of the Muzrai Department and that, from time to time, punjai was performed only by those Archigs or Pujaries

who were recognized by the Muzgarai officers of Government and permitted to make puja. The Isadik allowance was also paid to those Pujaries, who did the service in the temple under the orders of the Muzgrai officer. It, therefore, seems to me, as found by the Munsiff, that Plaintiffs have no cause of action against Defendants. The Defendants merely perform the puja as servants appointed or recognized by Government. The temple being Sircar temple, the Muzgrai officer, on behalf of Government, has a right to regulate the worship in the temple and to appoint and dismiss the servants of the temple pujaries included. The Civil Court to cannot interfere with the internal management of the temple. If Plaintiffs have any cause of action at all, it is against the Deputy commissioner or Government, who have abstained from compelling the pujaries to perform the puja; and and ~~they~~ sustained any damage at all, ~~or is by reason~~ of the refusal of Government to allow Plaintiffs to do service in the temple. The Defendants are merely the paid servants of Government For the service they are required to perform by Government, the "tasdik" is paid to them, and in addition thereto the Defendants, while officiating as pujaries, receive the voluntary offerings of the votaries. Such gratuitous fees are not appurtenant to the office. The votaries are at liberty to abstain from making their offerings if they do not recognize Defendants as their pujaries. As Defendants are rendering service simply under the orders of Government, it cannot be said they have deprived Plaintiffs of their office or usurped their emoluments. In this view, I think, Plaintiffs ~~not maintainable~~ and and has been properly dismissed I would dismiss this appeal with costs.

This case coming on for hearing on Friday the 2d day of February 1894: Upon perusing the case as stated by the Munsiff of Nanjungood, the Court pronounced the following

Opinion

The Chief Judge:— I am of opinion that this

-this reference was unnecessary, if not unauthorized under Section 227 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code. That Code, as its Preamble sets forth consolidated and amended the law relating to Revenue Officers and to the assessment and recovery of Land Revenue and to other matters connected with the Land Revenue Administration. The hereditary offices and duties and the village officers and servants, referred to in Section 221, are those appertaining to the Land Revenue Administration of Mysore. The Code has nothing whatever to do with Inigrai Establishments or allowances or Endowments attached to Temples or the rights appertaining to performance of puja or other worship connected with such temples, or the participation of profits perquisites or allowances by Pujaris, or hereditary or other servants of the said Temples. The Plaintiffs sued to establish their right to render by turns certain services in the temple at Mungungud, and to recover from Defendants one fourth of the monthly salary and daily rice doles from Defendants. The provisions of section 221, of the Land Revenue Code, are clearly no bar to the institution of this suit. This is purely a suit of a civil nature which is cognizable by Civil Courts, under section 11, Civil Procedure Code. The decision of this Court quoted by the Munsiff — 14 Mysore Law Reports page 150 — is more an authority in favor of the suit being within the cognizance of a Civil Court than otherwise. I would return the record to the Munsiff with the above remarks. I wish, however, to add, that if the money allowance &c, which Defendants receive from Government Muzrai Officers comes within the Pension Act XXIII of 1861, definition given in section 3, section 4 debars Civil Courts from taking cognizance of the suit without a Certificate from the Collector (Deputy Commissioner) or other authorized Officer. This, however, is a point which has neither been raised nor discussed by the Munsiff or argued before us.

C. Thumboo Chetty

Chief Judge

A. Ramachandra Iyer Esqr: — This was a suit to establish the plaintiffs' right to a ditary hereditary office in the temple at Nanjungode and to recover the arrears of pay from the defendants, who are the plaintiffs' coparceners. It was admitted that the temple is managed by the Inungarai Department. The point which has been referred by the Munsiff is whether section 221 of the Land Revenue Code, is a bar to the cognizance of the suit.

I agree in the opinion of the learned Chief Judge, that the matter in dispute is not within the purview of the Land Revenue Code. For the reasons which I have stated in my Judgment in Suit: appeal 36 of 1892 I hold that the hereditary officer or servant referred to in section 221 is an officer or servant appointed or recognized by Government as the chief controlling authority in all matters relating to the Land Revenue.
The Munsiff has power to entertain the suit. Whether the plaint is defective, and whether the suit is maintainable on other grounds, are questions which do not arise out of this reference, and I must abstain from expressing my my opinion thereon.

A Ramachandra Iyer

Judge

P. N. Krishna Murti Esqr:— I have not much to add. The provisions of the Land Revenue Code do not apply to the class of servants disputing their so-called title to the office in question in this suit. The reference is, therefore, unauthorized by that Code, and I do not feel bound to answer the question referred.

ABSTRACT.

Appeals against the order of the Deputy Commissioner in his Revenue Appeal case no: 33 of 1892-93, ~~for~~ & on the order thereon to the Amildar, for the following reasons:—

1) that the Lower Appellate Court erred in ordering the Resp to pay monthy 2½ Rs to the Appellant Narasamma, to ~~mom~~ Venkatkrishnia Chetty.

Mysore Govt. Central Press Bangalore—7-9-92,—1000.

... as there were no evidences forthcoming on the side of the Appellant.

(2) that the Taluk authorities were wrong in ~~doing~~ deducting, 2½ Rs in the last April, from the 15 "hanas" (Rs 4-5-6) which the Respondent used to get every month & in disbursing the same to the Appellant.

(3) that the amount 15 hanas were given to Respondent not for her own use but for Gods & therefore the lower Court had no right to split it.

(4) that the late Maharajah has given a sannad, dt 5-7-1813, sta that the amount should be spent for the procession etc only, the copy of the sannad is herein enclosed & the original is with the Appellant

(5) that there is an error in not giving 2 varahas to the temple according to the wordings of the sannad.

(6) that if 2½ Rs be deducted from 15 hanas, the remainder will be insufficient to maintain the ceremonies to be observed annually.

The petitioner therefore begs that the order of the Lower Court ordering the Respondent to pay 2½ Rs per mensem the [illegible] be cancelled.

Before the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Appeal No. 2949 of 1892-93

Appellant. Vs. Respondent.

Bettamma of Mysore represented by M. D. Narasingar advocate

Venkatakrishnaiá minor by his mother and Guardian Narasamma

Decision.

Appellant is Pujari in the temple of Anjaneyaswami in Mysore, and is in enjoyment of an allowance of Rs 4-5-6 from Government for Paditaram expenses. In 1891, Respondent claimed a moiety of the Pujari hak, and the Appellant admitted his right and stated that it was time that both herself and Respondent's father were doing duties by turns, each a month, but that on the death of Respondent's father in Vikriti 1890-91, the Respondent's mother and herself entered into an agreement under which she was to hold the Office for 5 years paying Respondent Rs 2-8-0 per mensem and insisted upon the agreement being carried out. Although there was no documentary evidence to prove the alleged agreement, the Deputy Commissioner decided that the private agreement shall be carried out and accordingly a sum of Rs 2-8 - out of the allowance is being paid to Respondent.

2. Appellant now denies the hak of the Respondent altogether, and states that any payment to the Respondent out of the Padiyaram allowance is illegal, and inconsistent with the object of the grant

3. Appellant having once admitted the right of the Respondent, she cannot be now allowed to deny it The Amildar's report shows that when Respondent's father was alive, he was doing duties by turns and receiving the allowance during his turn. The Government are therefore of opinion that unless the appellant is willing to act up to the agreement, Respondent should be allowed to do duties by turns, as his father used to do, and the Deputy Commissioner is requested to revise his order accordingly. It may be inconvenient to allow the Appellant and Respondent to do duties each a month. If so, the Deputy Commissioner is authorized to direct that they perform duties each for six months or a year

Appeals against the order of the Dy. Commr. Mysore District in Rev. appeal No. 3 of 1895-96 respecting the office of Pujari of the Anjaneya's temple at Veeranapore - Mysore.

The petitioner urges:-

(1) That she is the sole hakdar to the office of Pujari and that the respondent has no manner of right to it.

(2) That the Lower Appellate Court having raised the question whether the office was hereditary or not, should have enquired into it and not failed to investigate it.

(3) That respondent has not made a word in his statement in the original Court to the effect that Narasamma was the Karnam of the Peppuchipy of the said Anjaneya swami - that he had two sons viz. Timmappa and Venkata, that they as deponents used to conduct the worship separately - that the said Timmappa had no male issue and had a daughter named Venkatamma on whom he conferred the office as gift - and that the said Venkatamma transferred the office to her husband 45 years ago. She has also produced a deed of gift executed on an unstamped paper - that no penalty has been recovered on the said deed of gift - hence not registered. It is not written either on an old stamp paper. The lower court has admitted it - moreover the said deed has been recently attested by witnesses. Hence should be examined -

That the genealogy as traced in the said deed has not been proved - the respondent has not adduced any proof in this respect

That in the original court the first issue namely that the appellant was is the wife of Narasimhan Venkatia that the said Venkatia had a son named Venkata Sanyasia has been duly proved -

That the lower court has asked whether there was any Karar between the plaintiff and the defendants in respect of their Karnam to conduct the worship - they say that the Karar was not executed and that the Panchayatdars settled that during the death of the defendants father the plaintiff should pay to the defts 2½ per measure, but that they do not say that the plaintiff executed a Karar - the second issue has not been proved -

That it is stated that when the Dy Collr had enquiry powers the Shirastadar of the Peppur Taluk took down the deposition of the appellant, that the appellant has in case deposition neither accepted the Karnam of the respondents to conduct the worship and that the said deposition has been attested by Vallabha Sanyasi the brother of respondent Narasamma the lower court has admitted the said deposition - whether the appellant was asked she denied having given the said deposition - the admission of such a deposition by the lower court is against law - moreover it is a proceeding which took place in a court which had no jurisdiction in the matter - the lower court has taken this deposition to be a Karar - it is a mistake

That there are references in the accounts to show that the respondents ancestors Venkatia conducted the worship from 1882 to 1892 as pujaris to the appellant. The said Venkatia's name is not in all the mentions in the accounts previous to the above year the appellant is the Poojaridar Karnam and it is borne out in the last accounts

That it is clear from the Varavara, from the patta of the God produced by the appellant and from the Samad of 1813 granted by the Rajah of Peppur that she is the sole Karnam to perform the worship.

In the Court of the Deputy-Commissioner of the Mysore District

Dated, Mysore, 17th September 1895

Present B. K. Venkatavarada Iyengar Esquire

Deputy Commissioner

Revenue Regular Appeal no: 3 of 1895-96

Appellant (Plaintiff)

Bettamma, widow of Poojari Venkatiya residing in Veeranajere in Mysore.

Respondent (Defendants)

1. Venkatā Krishniah (minor)

2. Narasamma Mother of Venkatā Krishniah, also residing in Veeranajere in Mysore.

1. This is an appeal against the order of the First Assistant Commissioner of this (Mysore) District, dated the 23rd July 1895, in Revenue Regular Suit no.

no: 5 of 1894-95 on the file of his Court dismissing the Appellant's suit to establish that she is the sole poojaré of the Anjanéyaswamy temple at Veeranagere near Mysore and that the Respondents have no manner of title to it.

2. The grounds of Appeal are: -

(1) That it has not been proved that the Respondents have any right to the Poojarishipp; and -

(2) That the agreement referred to in the judgment of the Lower Court is opposed to law and devoid of consideration.

3. That the Elders of both parties were doing the duties of the office by turns - till their death has been admitted but the Appellant now alleges that the Elders of the Respondents were only acting as gumastas. This is not reliable inasmuch as they were doing the work by turns. Further the Appellant at a previous Miscellaneous enquiry admitted the title of the Respondents to a moiety of the office and on that ground the Government before whom the matter went up in appeal on the Miscellaneous proceedings decided that the Respondents were half sharers.

4. I therefore, agree with the Lower Court in dismissing the suit of the Appellant. She should bear all the costs throughout. I have doubts if the Poojari offices are, like those of Patails and Shanbhogs, hereditory and properly form the subject of regular suits. But in the above view of the case it is not necessary to try this point now.

ABSTRACT.

Reminder to her former petition dt 4-11-95, regarding her right to the Archakobip of the Anjaneyaswamy temple at Veerangere, Mysore city. States that on 23-11-95 she was informed that her petition had been sent to the Muzrai Secretary; that though she went and asked the Muzrai Secretary no reply was given to her; that upon her pressing the matter still further she was told that orders had been issued to 2389 4.4.96

5 the Deputy Commissioner for submission of the papers regarding her case; that on her enquiry at the Dy Commr's Office she was told that no such order had been communicated to them.

Adds that the Dy Commr has issued orders to dissuade the Archak who was performing the Puja on the Petr's side, from carrying on the Puja as usual.

Prays that early orders may be issued to the Dy Commr to allow Petr to continue to perform Puja pending the disposal of her appeal-

Ordered thereon.

From the records

received, it is observed that the subject of the Petitioners' suit has once previously come up before Govt. in Miscellaneous appeal Suit No. 2949 of 1892-93. In this appeal, the Govt. after hearing both the Petr
and the respondent
have held, in their order dt 17th June 94, that the Petr
and the respondent are Co-Sharers in the Pujarishipof the temple in question and that therefore they might do duties in the temple by such periodical turns as may be fixed by the Dy Commr.

An endorsement to this effect was granted to the Petr on the 17th June &
2. The Petr has ~~once more~~ instituted ~~a fresh~~ the present regular Suit on the Revenue side to establish her sole right to the Pujaruship to the exclusion of the Respondents Even this Suit has after one enquiry by the Asst Commr Mysore ~~Dist~~ been dismissed on ~~the~~ merits and their order of dismissal confirmed by the Dy Comm^r on appeal; ~~and the~~ Sec'y Govt after further ~~after further~~ perusal of the records ~~perusal of the records~~ ~~Her~~ see no grounds to interfere with the Dy Comm^r's decision.

The appeal is accordingly rejected.
